

COOLIDGE TOLD OF NOMINATION BY GOV. MORROW

Kentucky Executive Attacks
Democratic Administration
in Address to G. O. P. Vice-Presidential Nominee.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—This nomination is tendered you as the spontaneous wish of your party," said Gov. Morrow of Kentucky, principal speaker at the ceremonies attending the nomination here today of Gov. Coolidge, of his nomination as candidate of the Republican party for vice-president.

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

Gov. Morrow attacked the Democratic national administration for what he termed its hesitancy, blundering and stubbornness, and called the league of nations an attempt to bind the United States to the bloody feds of Europe.

"It is fitting," Mr. Morrow said, "that in Massachusetts at this fountain of American inspiration, we solemnly determine that the heritage which made us free, independent and prosperous, shall not be bartered for a mess of unknown pottage."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Gov. Morrow continued. "At home, grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to press for and demand solution, and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

"But confronted at home with high duties and most serious responsibilities, the present national administration, intrusted with the great powers of government, has halted and hesitated and blundered, while it, just all of its stubborn energies upon the task of fastening upon our country all of the ills of the world. The president and all those who in the past have bowed to his will, and he whom he has covered with his mantle, have brought to place in his stead, have for more than a year and are now seeking to strip us of our nationalism by clothing the nation in the multicolored garments of internationalism, to take from us our sovereignty and so, through a league of nations, to bind us to the bloody feds of Europe, to make us the guarantors of shifting, vanishing boundary lines to the ends of earth and to involve us in the great strife and confusion of the old world."

In such a time and with such issues confronting the country, Gov. Morrow asserted, Gov. Coolidge is confidently called upon to serve with a leader who "has spoken clearly, bravely and convincingly."

"His voice rings out now like a bugle through the land," he said, "and he will be in full accord with the time-honored, time-proven policies of the Republican party and that it will proclaim our party's principles of service to the nation and its people. When you have spoken, America will know captain and mate have turned the old ship of state from her wanderings . . . home, to the needs of the hour, to keep all and to save all that the past gave and which the future promises . . . to fulfill, as we always have done, our full share of world responsibility."

"The West called to the East," Gov. Morrow said, "and the nation made an answer."

TRI-STATE BRIEFS

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss.—Postmaster Will N. Guyton of Blue Mountain has received his commission for another term of four years. Postmaster Guyton expects soon through the efforts of Inspector A. H. Lewis to move the postoffice to a brick building and have up-to-date equipment. He has named Callie D. Guyton, Jr., as his assistant, and Willis Nance will continue to act as clerk.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss.—Dr. W. T. Lowrey, president of Blue Mountain college, has named Miss Julia Lee Godwin, who for some time has been teaching music in the Franklin county school, as a member of his music faculty for the season of 1920-21. Miss Godwin is a graduate of music from Blue Mountain college and has studied in the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, Mass., and came to Blue Mountain from New Orleans where she has been studying the pipe organ.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—The majority of the protracted meetings are now under full swing in Dover county and large crowds are attending the services.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—The Ditmore leaves, which extend east of Newbern, will soon be under construction. It is reported that work will begin Aug. 2. It will be one of the largest and best constructed levees ever built in this section. J. D. Rose, a well-known farmer, on route No. 6, has been awarded the contract.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—A large shipment of hogs and cows was made over the Illinois Central railroad from Newbern to the St. Louis market Saturday afternoon.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss.—The county Democratic executive committee held its first meeting last Friday and completed its organization by selecting L. G. Pant as chairman and W. B. Bradberry as secretary. They also fixed the assessment for the congressional candidate whose name goes on the tickets for the primary election at $5.

HARDY, Ark.—The Sharp County Teachers' institute was held at Williford last week, closing Saturday. The institute was conducted by Prof. R. V. Garrett, principal of the Mammoth Spring school, assisted by J. W. Taylor, county examiner of this county.

HARDY, Ark.—A movement is on foot to present to Governor Brough a petition for the pardon of Lilburn Taylor, who was convicted at the January term of court here of robbing the bank at Williford.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss.—M. H. Street, one of the most successful planters of this county, died suddenly at his home near Chulahoma Saturday afternoon. The burial took place Sunday afternoon at the family burying ground on his plantation. He has no immediate relative in this county except his widow who was previous to marriage a Miss Johnson, of Holly Springs.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—W. A. Shelton, 67, died at a hospital here following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Shelton was a resident of the Bogota section west of here. He was engaged in farming. Burial was made in the Bogota cemetery. Rev. H. H. Terry, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the funeral.

HUNTINGTON, Tenn.—Mrs. Ellen Roark Joyner, 45, died Monday at her home in Clarksville of rheumatism and heart disease. She was a member of the Christian church. She is survived by her husband, J. A. Joyner, a son, Leon Joyner, a daughter, Miss Arline Joyner, and a sister, Mrs. J. O. Burles of Florida. The burial took place at Clarksville.

VICKSBURG BAR TO PROBE MURRAY-GOLDSBY CASE

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 27. (Sp.)—At a special meeting of the Vicksburg Bar association today Judge Theo. Burnett, president, was instructed to appoint a committee of five to investigate the Murray-Bilbo-Goldsbey case and make recommendations as to what action the association should take in the premises.

Goldsbey, a notorious negro fence, procured a gubernatorial suspension of sentence six weeks after he was sentenced to five years on a plea of guilty to a charge of receiving stolen goods.

It developed that State Senator Murray, of Vicksburg, who was one of his attorneys, had arranged with former Gov. Bilbo to obtain a pardon for Goldsbey at the July term of the pardon board, though Murray denied having any knowledge of the matter.

When Goldsbey was released in Chicago and returned to Vicksburg he said he paid $5,000 for a pardon and had a letter to prove his statements. He then gave out the letters Murray had written to him to substantiate his statements.

GOES TO HOLLY SPRINGS.

John M. Dean, member of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors and chairman of the by-laws committee of the same organization, will go to Holly Springs, Miss., Thursday to aid the chamber of that city in reconstructing its constitution and by-laws. Mr. Dean is considered to be an expert in this work and his trip is to be made at the request of the commercial organization of Holly Springs.

REVENUE AGENT HERE.

Edgar Graham, an internal revenue agent from Washington, D. C., arrived in Memphis Monday to take charge of some of the income tax work at the Memphis internal revenue department. He will probably stay in Memphis the remainder of this summer.

WOMAN CANDIDATE DEAD.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 27.—Dr. Eva Harding, sole candidate on the Socialist ticket for the party nomination of United States senator died here this morning. She had been in ill health more than a year from heart trouble.

CHURCH 100 YEARS OLD.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 27.—The First Baptist church, one of the important churches in the denomination, will observe its centennial anniversary beginning Nov. 7.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—The Ditmore leaves, which extend east of Newbern, will soon be under construction. It is reported that work will begin Aug. 2. It will be one of the largest and best constructed levees ever built in this section. J. D. Rose, a well-known farmer, on route No. 6, has been awarded the contract.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—A large shipment of hogs and cows was made over the Illinois Central railroad from Newbern to the St. Louis market Saturday afternoon.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss.—The county Democratic executive committee held its first meeting last Friday and completed its organization by selecting L. G. Pant as chairman and W. B. Bradberry as secretary. They also fixed the assessment for the congressional candidate whose name goes on the tickets for the primary election at $5.

HARDY, Ark.—The Sharp County Teachers' institute was held at Williford last week, closing Saturday. The institute was conducted by Prof. R. V. Garrett, principal of the Mammoth Spring school, assisted by J. W. Taylor, county examiner of this county.

HARDY, Ark.—A movement is on foot to present to Governor Brough a petition for the pardon of Lilburn Taylor, who was convicted at the January term of court here of robbing the bank at Williford.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss.—M. H. Street, one of the most successful planters of this county, died suddenly at his home near Chulahoma Saturday afternoon. The burial took place Sunday afternoon at the family burying ground on his plantation. He has no immediate relative in this county except his widow who was previous to marriage a Miss Johnson, of Holly Springs.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—W. A. Shelton, 67, died at a hospital here following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Shelton was a resident of the Bogota section west of here. He was engaged in farming. Burial was made in the Bogota cemetery. Rev. H. H. Terry, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the funeral.

HUNTINGTON, Tenn.—Mrs. Ellen Roark Joyner, 45, died Monday at her home in Clarksville of rheumatism and heart disease. She was a member of the Christian church. She is survived by her husband, J. A. Joyner, a son, Leon Joyner, a daughter, Miss Arline Joyner, and a sister, Mrs. J. O. Burles of Florida. The burial took place at Clarksville.

VICKSBURG BAR TO PROBE MURRAY-GOLDSBY CASE

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 27. (Sp.)—At a special meeting of the Vicksburg Bar association today Judge Theo. Burnett, president, was instructed to appoint a committee of five to investigate the Murray-Bilbo-Goldsbey case and make recommendations as to what action the association should take in the premises.

Goldsbey, a notorious negro fence, procured a gubernatorial suspension of sentence six weeks after he was sentenced to five years on a plea of guilty to a charge of receiving stolen goods.

It developed that State Senator Murray, of Vicksburg, who was one of his attorneys, had arranged with former Gov. Bilbo to obtain a pardon for Goldsbey at the July term of the pardon board, though Murray denied having any knowledge of the matter.

When Goldsbey was released in Chicago and returned to Vicksburg he said he paid $5,000 for a pardon and had a letter to prove his statements. He then gave out the letters Murray had written to him to substantiate his statements.

GOES TO HOLLY SPRINGS.

John M. Dean, member of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors and chairman of the by-laws committee of the same organization, will go to Holly Springs, Miss., Thursday to aid the chamber of that city in reconstructing its constitution and by-laws. Mr. Dean is considered to be an expert in this work and his trip is to be made at the request of the commercial organization of Holly Springs.

REVENUE AGENT HERE.

Edgar Graham, an internal revenue agent from Washington, D. C., arrived in Memphis Monday to take charge of some of the income tax work at the Memphis internal revenue department. He will probably stay in Memphis the remainder of this summer.

WOMAN CANDIDATE DEAD.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 27.—Dr. Eva Harding, sole candidate on the Socialist ticket for the party nomination of United States senator died here this morning. She had been in ill health more than a year from heart trouble.

CHURCH 100 YEARS OLD.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 27.—The First Baptist church, one of the important churches in the denomination, will observe its centennial anniversary beginning Nov. 7.

NEW FIRM OPENS.

The opening for business of the Magnolia Laboratories, Inc., 70 South Second street, has been announced by Mark Fenton, industrial secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The new firm will be engaged in the manufacture of cosmetics of all kinds and will make shipments to all parts of the United States. The concern is incorporated under the laws of this state, with a capital of $10,000. The officers of the firm are William Mittelstadt, president, and Russell Carrington is secretary and treasurer. Both men are of Memphis.

PUBLICITY EXPERTS TO MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Chairman J. P. Alley has issued a call for a special meeting of the members of the publicity division of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held on the second floor of the chamber Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. The regular meeting for this month was postponed on account of the firemen's walkout. Matters of special interest to the committee will be brought up at the meeting Wednesday.

BOLT HITS BARN; BURNS.

NEWBURN, Tenn., July 27. (Sp.)—Lightning struck the large stock barn of Dr. John C. Balthrop, physician and farmer of this section and the building was destroyed by fire.

Dr. Balthrop was in the barn when the bolt struck, but was unharmed. Several thousands pounds of hay and some implements were destroyed. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

NAME MEN TO SELECT MALLORY'S SUCCESSOR

At a meeting of the river and navigation finance committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce late Monday to consider the refusal of W. W. Mallory to serve as chairman of the finance committee, placed in charge of organizing a $1,500,000 shipping corporation, a subcommittee was appointed to consider the selection of a permanent chairman of the finance committee and is composed of Milton H. Hunt, Jack Gates, L. E. Salisbury, Frank Fisher and W. J. Prescott. They will name the man of their choice at the next regular meeting, and if the man selected meets with the approval of the general committee he will be elected.

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

W. H. CLAYPOOL HUGH J. JETTON C. B. MARTIN

THE HERMIT

Who never goes any place and never wants to is the only man who doesn't need a car. If you're not a hermit better look over the Reo.

The Gold Standard of Values

REO MEMPHIS COMPANY

735-737 Union Ave. Main 7886.

NAME MEN TO SELECT MALLORY'S SUCCESSOR

At a meeting of the river and navigation finance committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce late Monday to consider the refusal of W. W. Mallory to serve as chairman of the finance committee, placed in charge of organizing